SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA §
§
v. § CRIMINAL NO. 18-CR-00115
RODOLFO "RUDY" DELGADO §

DEFENDANT'S WRITTEN WAIVER OF ARRAIGNMENT

NOW COMES Defendant Rodolfo Delgado, by and through undersigned counsel, and provides this Court with a written waiver of arraignment. For the reasons outlined below, Defendant and counsel request that the Court accept this written waiver in lieu of personal appearance for arraignment on the superseding indictment. Both prosecutors assigned to the instant case notified undersigned counsel that the Government does not oppose a written waiver in lieu of Defendant's personal appearance.

Defendant and undersigned counsel hereby acknowledge the following:

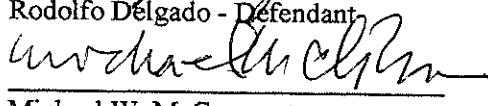

- (1) Defendant has received a copy of the superseding indictment in this case and consulted fully with undersigned counsel relative to the matters in such indictment. Defendant understands the nature and substance of the charges contained therein, the maximum penalties applicable thereto, and his constitutional rights.
- (2) Defendant understands that he has the right to appear personally with his attorney before a judge for arraignment in open court on the accusations contained in the superseding indictment. Defendant further understands that, absent the present written waiver, he will be arraigned in open court at the time and date designated.
- (3) Defendant, having conferred with his attorney in this regard, hereby waives personal appearance with his attorney at the arraignment of this case and the reading of the superseding indictment, and tenders his plea of Not Guilty through this written document. Defendant understands that the court's entry of his plea will conclude the arraignment in this case.

- (4) Defendant understands that he has a right to a minimum period of time prior to trial so that trial shall not commence less than thirty (30) days from the date on which the defendant first appears through counsel or expressly waives and elects to proceed pro-se.
- (5) Defendant is a licensed attorney in the State of Texas and was a Texas state judge for several decades, and therefore Defendant fully understands the nature of the charges and the consequences of a written waiver of arraignment and a finding of guilt on any of the counts in the superseding indictment.
- (6) Undersigned counsel discussed with Government counsel the probability of a superseding indictment being returned by the grand jury, and the Government's position as to a waiver of arraignment. Government attorneys expressed that the Government has no opposition to a waiver of arraignment in lieu of personal appearance.
- (7) Defendant has fully complied with all conditions of pretrial release, and both he and his counsel reside over 150 miles from Houston.

For all of these reasons, Defendant respectfully requests that this signed written waiver of arraignment be accepted by the Court in lieu of Defendant's personal appearance.
